My children and I are visiting from out of state. We wanted to see the seals. Seen the sign saying we can go anywhere on the beach and not to disturb the seals. Well, when we got to the beach a lady got her bull horn out and cursed at my son which was doing nothing anyways for being on the beach and threatened to call the authorities. As we were leaving the beach she started to follow us to our car. How stupid you can not enjoy Gods creatures because of insane people. Someone needs to stop this!!!!
